MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Briefing of General Maxwell Taylor

All of the annexed questions on which General Taylor wants a briefing next Wednesday appear to be operational, except number 2.d. which relates to communications. Substantially all of them, including the one on communications, can be covered by a representative of the DDP, although somebody from DDS&T will probably have to go along for numbers 2.f. and 2.g. (having to do with overhead reconnaissance). The implications of the question regarding th[redacted]) will have to be checked at an appropriate level, but I suppose that the DDP representative could give the answer.
